

New Ahuriri website now live!

The Ahuriri Business Association has just launched a brand new website for Ahuriri. Have you checked out ahuriri.co.nz lately? The responsive new site works well across all devices, so whether you're using your phone, your tablet or your computer to see what's happening in Ahuriri, you'll get great results. What's more, the new site provides a wide range of promotional opportunities for businesses and organisations to reach over 1,500 online visitors each month, so make sure you are visible!

Are you on ahuriri.co.nz?

If you are already a member of the Ahuriri Business Association (ABA) you are already showcased on the new website. Just check out your listing and let us know if you require any changes.

Not a member of the Ahuriri Business Association yet? We can help you with that! Simply join as a Full Member (if you are based in Ahuriri) or as an Associate Member (if you are based anywhere else) and reap the rewards of being part of a proactive, community-focused organisation that supports business, leisure and progress in and around our beautiful seaside suburb.

Full or associate membership is $250 +GST per annum, and entitles you to a free standard listing on ahuriri.co.nz, access to member rates for other marketing initiatives including the Ahuriri Guide, networking opportunities and much more.

To find out more, email info@ahuriri.co.nz and we'll get you signed up!

ahuriri.co.nz is now responsive and works well across all devices.
